TO: Eric Galarneau, Public Integrity Chief/Office of Albany County District Attorney P. David Soares
Richard Hartunian, U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of New York

I have received no response from either of you to the below and attached request to meet with you tomorrow, August 14th. Have you responded?

Would you instead be available for a meeting on Wednesday, August 21st, in the afternoon – as I have postponed my trip to Albany until then.

Also, please advise whether, as requested, you have obtained the evidentiary proof we provided to U.S. Attorneys Bharara and Lynch in substantiation of our corruption complaint – most importantly, our March 30, 2012 verified complaint in CJA v. Cuomo with all its exhibits, including our October 27, 2011 Opposition Report. Obviously, making further copies to provide you is costly and time-consuming.

I will call you this Friday, August 16th, if I have not heard from you before then.

Thank you.

TO: Public Integrity Unit Bureau Chief Eric Galarneau
Office of Albany County District Attorney P. David Soares

Attached is my letter to you of today's date – to which U.S. Attorney Richard Hartunian is an indicated recipient – requesting to meet with each of you on Wednesday, August 14th, preferably together, regarding the corruption complaints and intervention requests that we have filed with you both.

Please advise, as soon as possible.

Thank you.
