STATE OF NEW YORK

COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL NOMINATION

QUESTIONNAIRE FOR CANDIDATES FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS

This questionnaire must be completed and verified before consideration of candidacy can commence.

Unless otherwise indicated, every question must be answered, although the answer is negative or an indication that the question is inapplicable.

If the space given is insufficient for an answer, complete the answer on a sheet or sheets and attach them to this questionnaire.

Judiciary Law, Article 3-A, §66 provides that all communications to the Commission, including applications among other things, shall be confidential and privileged and not available to any person, except as otherwise provided in Article 3-A, and except for the purposes of Article 210 of the Penal Law, which relates to perjury.

The Commission will consider this application in connection with nominations for any Associate Judge vacancy during 1993 unless specifically directed otherwise. Only supplementary information will be requested in connection with the vacancy that is anticipated at the end of 1993, or any other vacancy during 1993.

- 1. Full name. (If you have ever used or been known by any other name, state that name)
  - Office address and telephone and fax numbers.

- 26. Furnish at least five examples of legal articles, books, briefs or other legal writings which reflect your personal work and which you consider representative. Indicate the degree to which the writings are your personal work in the event of joint authorship. (In the case of Judges who have responded to question 20, this question is optional.)
- 27. To your knowledge, has any complaint or charge ever been made against you as a lawyer? If so, furnish full details, including the Bar Association or other entity to whom the charges were referred, the nature of the complaint or charge, the outcome and the dates involved.1

28. (a) To your knowledge, has any complaint or charge ever been made against you in connection with your service in a judicial office? Include in your response any question raised or inquiry conducted of any kind by any agency or official of the judicial system.

Judiciary Law, Article 3-S §64(3) provides that this Commission may require from any court or other agency of the State any information or data as will enable it properly to evaluate qualifications of candidates, subject to an absolute judicial or executive privilege where one exists.

COMMISSION

ON

JUDICIAL CONDUCT

ANSWERS TO INQUIRIES

- 1. Q: Does the Commission have a complaint form?
  - A: No. A signed letter to the Commission detailing the allegations of misconduct and naming the judge is sufficient.
- 2. Q: Will the judge know that I have submitted a complaint?
  - A: Perhaps. If the Commission decides to investigate your complaint, the judge is likely to be asked to respond to the allegations in your complaint.
- 3. Q: Does the judge have to disqualify himself or herself if I have submitted a complaint?
  - A: No.
- 4. Q: Can the Commission direct that the judge be disqualified, or that a new trial be held, or that any other relief be granted?
  - A: No. The Commission is not a court and has no authority to grant relief to any litigant.
- 5. Q: Will I hear further from the Commission?
  - A: The Commission is required by law to inform complainants of any action taken on their complaints.
