Dear Ms. Noonan,

What will you say at New York's Conservative Party Political Action Conference about defeating Governor Cuomo and achieving a Conservative/ Republican sweep in the 2014 elections?

Do you have a winning strategy?

Our non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) does -- and has already proposed it to the Conservative Party, the Republican Party, Donald Trump, and to your fellow Convention speakers, Rob Astorino and Carl Paladino. Likewise to Convention speakers E.J. McMahon, Rich Lowry, & George Marlin.

Our advice: take over the "public integrity", "good government" mantle that Governor Cuomo and 'liberal/progressives" have been hypocritically sporting -- while, simultaneously, doing what Conservatives and Republicans do best, championing "sound fiscal policies designed to save taxpayer money".

All would doubtless greatly benefit from your opinion on the subject. Our e-mails to them, laying out a major political scandal and opportunity, are posted on our website www.judgewatch.org, whose homepage has a hyperlink for "Defeating Corrupt Incumbents in the 2014 Elections".

May I suggest you start with our Jan. 24th e-mail to Messrs. Astorino and Paladino.

I would welcome your call -- and offer you my fullest assistance so that your powerful voice about the New York political scene may be informed by what has been happening "on-the-ground" with respect to New York's budget for last fiscal year, this fiscal year, and the upcoming fiscal year, unreported by the press, just as, likewise, the press has not reported on the corruption of Governor Cuomo's Commission to Investigate Public Corruption, which has been sitting on fully-documented complaints against Governor Cuomo, Attorney General Schneiderman, Comptroller DiNapoli and other public officers relating thereto, all of whom should long ago have been indicted for their "grand larceny of the public fisc and other corrupt acts".

Thanking you, in advance, for your examination of this e-mail -- and for your leadership in restoring to the People of New York fiscally-responsible, honest, constitutional governance, such as we do not have.
