| 7 | very simple: do you accept the terms of the probation as they |
|----|---|
| 2 | have been expressed during my presentation to you? |
| 3 | Ms. Sassower, the answer is either yes or no. Do |
| 4 | you accept the terms of the probation as I have stated them |
| 5 | to you? |
| 6 | (Pause.) |
| 7 | MS. SASSOWER: I am requesting a stay of sentence, |
| 8 | pending appeal. This case will be appealed. |
| 9 | THE COURT: Ms. Sassower, the answer is yes or no. |
| 10 | Do you accept the conditions of your probation? |
| 11 | MS. SASSOWER: No. |
| 12 | THE COURT: Very well. Then, sentence is imposed |
| 13 | as follows: |
| 14 | You are sentenced to six months incarceration. |
| 15 | You will pay, within 30 days, following your |
| 16 | incarceration, $500 as the fine that attaches to the penalty |
| 17 | to the offense for which you've been convicted. |
| 18 | You will also pay, within 30 days, following your |
| 19 | incarceration, the $250 compensation contribution to the |
| 20 | Victims of Violent Crimes Fund. |
| 21 | Ms. Sassower, once again, your pride has gotten in |
| 22 | the way of what could have been a beneficial circumstance for |
| 23 | you. This incarceration begins forthwith; step her back. |
| 24 | (Thereupon, the proceedings were concluded.) |
