RE: Informing the Voters: Attorney General Eliot Spitzer's readily-verifiable corruption in office, long covered up by the press

Dear Mr. Langone:

The Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) is a national, non-profit, non-partisan citizens' organization, based in New York, working to ensure that the processes of judicial selection and discipline are effective and meaningful. We have direct, first-hand experience with Attorney General Spitzer – and can attest to the correctness of your view that he “isn't fit to be governor of New York State or [to hold] any other office”¹. Indeed, based on our direct, first-hand experience with the press, we can further attest to the correctness of your view that the press has functioned as his “stenographers”².

The purpose of this letter is to offer you the same readily-verifiable documentary evidence of Attorney General Spitzer's corruption in office which, to no avail, we repeatedly provided and proffered to the press from the fall of 1999 onward so that it could perform its journalistic duty to examine and report on misconduct so serious as to have long ago warranted Mr. Spitzer's removal and disbarment. This evidence is summed up in a four-page story proposal entitled “The REAI.
