Dear Public Integrity Chief Galarneau,

Glad we could speak – and, hopefully, your schedule permitting, we will be able to meet together next Wednesday, August 21st. We have much to discuss, beginning with the conflict of interest issues that are threshold.

I will call on Tuesday afternoon to check if you are still on trial. In any event, to expedite matters, I will plan to deliver to your office on Wednesday afternoon the documentary proof substantiating our July 19th corruption complaint – identical to what US Attorneys Bharara or Lynch have been sitting on these many months.

Meantime, attached is our August 5th letter to the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption, to which, as yet, we have received no response. As reflected by the below e-mail, I did send it to you, in addition to District Attorney Soares.

Thank you.

Subject: Keeping the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption True to its Name & Announced Purpose

Attached is the Center for Judicial Accountability's above-entitled letter of today's date to Commission Executive Director Regina Calcaterra – to which the Commission's three co-chairs are indicated recipients, as is Commission member Soares.

The letter is already posted, with substantiating evidence, on the webpage we created for the Commission, on our website, www.judgewatch.org, accessible via the top panel "Latest News" by its hyperlink "Holding Government Accountable for its Grand Larceny of the Public Fisc and Other Corruption". Here's the direct link: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/judicial-compensation/commission-on-public-corruption.htm> .

Thank you.
