QUESTIONNAIRE FOR CANDIDATES FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS

---

This questionnaire must be completed and verified before consideration of candidacy can commence.

Unless otherwise indicated, every question must be answered, although the answer may be negative, or by an indication that the question is inapplicable.

If the space given is insufficient for an answer, complete the answer on a sheet or sheets and attach them to this questionnaire.

Judiciary Law, Article 3-A, § 66 provides that all communications to the Commission, including applications among other things, shall be confidential and privileged and not available to any person, except as otherwise provided in Article 3-A, and except for the purposes of Article 210 of the Penal Law, which relates to perjury.

1. Full name. (If you have ever used or been known by any other name, state that name.)

2. Social Security number.

3. Office address and telephone and fax numbers.

4. Present residence and residence telephone number and any other residences you have had within the past five years, including temporary residences, and the dates for each residence.

5. Date and place of birth. (In the event you were not born in the United States, submit evidence of your United States citizenship.)
6. Present position or occupation.
7. If you are married, state your marriage date and full name and occupation of your spouse.
8. List all colleges and professional schools (other than law schools) ever attended; include degrees received, class standing if known and honors and indicate the beginning and ending month and year of each period of attendance. If you did not receive a degree, state the reason and the nature of the course of study you pursued.
9. List all law schools attended, providing similar detail as requested in item 7.
10. List any other school attended, other than elementary or secondary schools, and identify any other courses of study you have taken, providing similar detail as requested in item 7.

11. If you have served in the Armed Forces, including the Reserve or National Guard, state your date of entry into and discharge from the service, the nature or type of discharge, your rank at the time of entry and discharge and state any award or citations received.
12. Have you been engaged in any occupation, business or profession other than the practice of law or judicial or other public office, since the date you graduated from law school?
- (a) If so, give details, including dates, and the circumstances under which you ceased to be so engaged.
- (b) In the event that the occupation, business or profession in which you were engaged was owned by you alone, or owned by you with others, directly or indirectly, state the names and present addresses of any of those who shared the ownership and state whether or not there are unpaid debts or claims with respect to the conduct of that occupation, business or profession.
13. Are you an officer or director, or otherwise engaged in the management, of any enterprise?
- (a) If so, unless that enterprise is described above, give details, including name, dates, nature of business and description of your position.

- (b) Is it your intention to resign each such position and withdraw from participation in the management of any such enterprise, if you are nominated and confirmed?

If not, explain why resignation would not be necessary.

14. List all bars and the courts in the United States or elsewhere to which you are admitted to practice, other than on a pro hac vice basis, with your dates of admission.
15. List in chronological order the dates and location of every place you have practiced law and the nature of your practice since your graduation from law school. If you have practiced in partnership with others, include the partnership name and address.
16. List areas of the law in which you have concentrated and the periods during which you have done so.

17. In the event that you have been a practicing lawyer at any time within the last five years:
- (a) Did you appear in court regularly, occasionally or not at all? If the frequency of your appearances in court varied during this period, explain the variance, giving dates.

  - (b) Describe your litigation practice, if any, during the last five years (i) indicating what percentage was civil or criminal or attributable to a more specific type of case such as personal injury, landlord and tenant, securities and the like and giving as much detail as is appropriate to provide an understanding of the nature of your litigation practice and (ii) listing ten recent cases in which you have taken part for the purpose of hearing, trial or appeal in any court and stating for each the name, present address and telephone number of your adversary and the court and the judge or judges before whom you appeared for the purpose of a hearing, trial or appeal.

  - (c) List your five most significant clients during the last five years.

18. Summarize your legal experience, particularly with respect to litigation and in court but also otherwise, prior to the last five years, with a comparison to your answer with respect to the last five years.
19. List each judicial office you have held, including dates in office, and any specific functions you have been assigned within each particular court.
20. List each other experience or position of a judicial nature, such as arbitrator, mediator, referee, law clerk and the like, giving dates and explanatory detail.

21. If you have held judicial or similar office during part or all of the last five years, submit a list of ten recent cases over which you have presided or written an opinion and include a separate list (which may overlap with the first list) of ten opinions you have written which you view as representative of your judicial writings. If published, give citations; if unpublished, supply copies. If names and addresses of all counsel in each case are not shown in the opinion, supply those names and addresses if available to you.
22. List each public position you have held, other than of a judicial nature, giving dates and explanatory detail.
23. List any teaching position you have held, including part-time or occasional positions, with dates and a description of the subject-matter and educational institution or sponsor.

24. State any other experience you have had which may be relevant for the position of Associate Judge.

25. List any bar association, other professional society or community organization of any kind of which you are or have been a member and give the title and dates of any office, chairmanship or committee membership which you have held.

26. (a) List any other organization, association or club of which you are or have been a member, including social or fraternal, and give the title and dates of any office, chairmanship or committee membership which you have held.

(b) Do any of the organizations, associations or clubs identified in subpart (a) of which you are a member have any restriction on membership based on gender, race, religion, national origin, sexual orientation or physical handicap?

(c) If the answer to subpart (b) is yes, please describe the restriction(s).

27. Furnish a bibliography of your legal articles, books, briefs, editorials, letters to the editor, op-ed pieces or other writings published during the last five years. Furnish at least five examples which reflect your personal work and which you consider representative. Indicate the degree to which the writings are your personal work, in the event of joint authorship.

28. Describe briefly any speeches or lectures you have given during the past five years other than regular classes you have taught. To the extent you have a written copy of the speech or lecture, please provide it.

29. To your knowledge, has any complaint or charge ever been made against you as a lawyer? If so, furnish full details, including the entity to which the charge was referred, the nature of the complaint or charge, the outcome and the dates involved.<sup>1</sup>

30. (a) To your knowledge, has any complaint or charge ever been made against you in connection with your service in a judicial office? Your response should include any question raised or inquiry conducted of any kind by any agency or official of the judicial system.

(b) If the answer to subpart (a) is "Yes", furnish full details, including the agency or officer making or conducting the inquiry, the nature of the question or inquiry, the outcome and relevant dates.<sup>2</sup>
