Dear Njideka,

I am so pleased to be able to assist you in developing a story about the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption – and its cover-up of what 17 ordinary witnesses had to say about judicial corruption – and the worthlessness of all investigative and prosecutorial bodies and public officers.

My summary of what I said at the Commission's September 17, 2013 public hearing, what the other ordinary witnesses had to say, and what the Commission thereafter did is set forth at paras. 51-100 of my proposed verified complaint to intervene as a plaintiff in the declaratory judgment action against the Commission – and, additionally, at paras. 48-58, 62-67 of my affidavit in support of intervention. Here's the link to the pertinent webpage: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/commission-to-investigate-public-corruption/holding-to-account/intervention-declaratory-judgment.htm> -- from which, as I showed you, there is a direct link to the Commission hearings: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/commission-to-investigate-public-corruption/people-evidence/menu-people-evidence.htm>

Below is my e-mail to Professor Zephyr Teachout. Her Fordham Law School bio – featuring her expertise in political corruption – is here: <http://law.fordham.edu/faculty/zephyrteachout.htm>. She would be a great contact for you in developing your electorally-explosive story about the Commission, etc...

Subject: You can win vs Cuomo!

Dear Professor Teachout,

Following up my voice mail message for you a short time ago, you can win a Democratic primary against Governor Cuomo by exposing his readily-verifiable corruption in office.

Such corruption – involving millions and ultimately billions of taxpayer dollars and Governor Cuomo's touted accomplishment of "four on-time budgets" – is chronicled in two lawsuits that our nonpartisan, nonprofit citizens' organization has brought, suing the Governor and a who's who of New York's other highest public officers for corruption. It is also chronicled by our intervention motion in the Legislature's declaratory judgment action against the Governor's now-defunct Commission to Investigate Public Corruption, a corrupt façade that protected him and those at the highest levels collusive in corrupting our government.

How wonderful that you are a law professor – with a specialty in political corruption. These three lawsuits, each expressly brought by us "on behalf of the People of the State of New York & the public interest", are perfect paper trails,
