Hearing scheduled for cross endorsements

A court hearing on a lawsuit that challenges as "illegal and invalid" the practice of cross endorsing of judicial candidates by Westchester County Democrats and Republicans has been rescheduled for Oct. 12.

A group called the Ninth Judicial Committee wants to invalidate the cross-endorsement of Albert Emanuelli, candidate for Westchester County judge, and Howard Miller and Francis Nicolai, candidates for state Supreme Court justice in the 9th Judicial District.

The hearing, scheduled to be heard at Albany County Courthouse yesterday, was postponed for a week because the necessary documents needed were not received on time by the Ninth Judicial Committee, according to Helen Giroux, a clerk at the courthouse.
