Marianne Sabato
Gannett Westchester Newspapers

Dear Ms. Sabato:

This confirms my conversation with you moments ago requesting the identity of the writer of the story entitled "Appeals Judge Delays Sentence in Sassower Case", appearing at page 16 of today's Reporter Dispatch. You said that you did not know but suggested that it might be Cameron McWhirter. You told me you would leave a message for him--since he is off today.

I also requested that you leave a message with the Night Editors who were working yesterday evening so that they can verify for me the writer of the story and the source of his/her information.

We expect a return call promptly relative to this story.

As usual, Gannett's presentation is false, inaccurate and defamatory.
