Dear Mr. Blain,

Attached is my October 5th memo to Editorial Page Editor Ron Patafio – whose very first line refers to your October 2nd article "Spitzer vows to get tougher on election fraud". It sets forth CJA's powerful proposal for election coverage, "The REAL Attorney General Spitzer --Not the P.R. Version" – which, plainly, you should see as The Journal News has apparently assigned you to what it purports to be election coverage.

P.S. In the event you are unaware, ^{inswance} Mr. Spitzer's campaign website [www.spitzer2002.com] is using your "Spitzer vows to get tougher on election fraud" article to promote Mr. Spitzer's re-election. Congratulations on being used. Now, how about reporting on what Mr. Spitzer won't be able to feature on his website – the document-supported facts as to his on-the-job misconduct so serious as to not only end his political career, but his legal career as well.
