RE: My Own Follow-Up with Editors on the Reportorial/Investigative
Side of the Daily News

Dear Larry:

As discussed, I would appreciate if you would transmit to your editor, Russ Hoyle, the copy of the appellate file of my important public interest lawsuit against the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct, which Michael Aronson told me you had "borrowed" from him.

So that you do not have to trouble yourself in locating the copies of my correspondence to Mr. Aronson that I sent you – to wit, my February 25th and March 7th letters – I will fax my own copies of those letters to Mr. Hoyle, once you provide me with his fax number.

Obviously, before taking this matter to the Publisher, I want to get a clear picture as to where this matter stands with the reportorial/investigative side of the Daily News. To that end, I will provide Mr. Hoyle with my prior letters to Mr. Aronson as well.

Meantime, enclosed is the article "Appeal for Justice", describing the extraordinary posture of the case at the Court of Appeals. It appeared in the April 25th-May 1st issue of Albany's alternative newspaper, Metroland.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER, Coordinator
Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)

Enclosure

P.S. For your convenience, enclosed is my March 7th coverletter to you, to which -- for reasons I cannot comprehend -- you took umbrage.
