RE: "Law Day": May 1st – and Beyond

Dear Mr. McKinley:

Thank you for your time and interest. Assuredly, New York's highest public officers – among them, the Governor, Chief Judge, and Attorney General -- will be giving speeches and listening to each other's speeches on "Law Day" (May 1st). Beyond those congratulatory speeches, however, is a different reality. Maybe you can start by finding out WHY there's been no legislative oversight hearings of the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct these past 15 years?

As discussed, enclosed are the following:

(1) Info on "Law Day" (May 1") - including Congressional Resolution;

- (2) "Appeal for Justice", Metroland, article by Erin Sullivan, current issue;
- (3) "Sitting in Judgment", Metroland, my letter to the editor, 2/28/02;
- (4) State Comptroller's 1989 Report on the Commission: "Not Accountable to the Public: Resolving Charges Against Judges is Cloaked in Secrecy", pp. 4-7: "Results of Examination";
- (5) CJA's 10/26/01 letter to Senator David Patterson reiterating CJA's request that he take steps to secure a legislative oversight hearing of the Commission and outlining the three categories of readily-verifiable evidence establishing the Commission's corruption;
- (6) CJA's 12/19/01 F.O.I.L. request to Senate Judiciary Committee for info and documents on Governor Pataki's judicial appointees and their confirmations.

I look forward to providing you with the readily-verifiable evidence for the powerful and electorally-significant stories represented by the foregoing. That way you can draw your own conclusions as to the corruption of our essential governmental processes of judicial selection and discipline – corruption in which Governor Pataki and Attorney General Spitzer are knowledgeable and actively complicitous.

Congressional Resolution Establishing Law Day (1961)

US Code, Title 36, Section 164

The first day of May of each year is hereby designated as Law Day, U.S.A. It is set aside as a special day of celebration by the American people in appreciation of their liberties and the reaffirmation of their loyalty to the United States of America; of their rededication to the ideals of equality and justice under law in their relations with each other as well as with other nations; and for the cultivation of that respect for law that is so vital to the democratic way of life.

The President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon all public officials to display the flag of the United States on all government buildings on such day and inviting the people of the United States to observe such day with suitable ceremonies and other appropriate ways, through public bodies and private organizations as well as in schools and other suitable places.
