New York State Attorney General Dennis Vacco
Albany, New York

Dear Mr. Vacco:

Transmitted herewith is CJA's December 16, 1997 letter to the New York State Ethics Commission. It requests that our public interest ad, "Restraining 'Liars in the Courtroom' and on the Public Payroll", printed in the August 27, 1997 New York Law Journal, be considered a supplement to our September 14, 1995 ethics complaint against the State Attorney General's office -- and against you, personally. A copy of the ad is annexed to the December 16th letter.

Like this supplement, our September 14, 1995 ethics complaint was hand-delivered to your office. This is reflected by our September 19, 1995 transmittal coverletter, with your office's file stamp on it. Now, as then, we remind you of your ethical and professional obligation to take prompt corrective action -- beginning with an investigation. Such investigation will confirm the serious misconduct of your office and its complicity in corrupting the judicial processes -- federal and state -- in two state Article 78 proceedings, Sassower v. Mangano, et al. and Sassower v. Commission on Judicial Conduct, and in the Sec. 1983 federal action, Sassower v. Mangano, et al. Under such circumstances, we again remind you that your minimal duty is to make motions to vacate for fraud, misconduct, and other misrepresentation the court orders of dismissal in each of those cases".

Yours for a quality judiciary,

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER, Coordinator
Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc.
