Re: Finnan v Finnan, Index #403-03, RJI 15-1-03-0167

Hon. Justice Dawson,

Re: FRAUD Mr. Asadourian's fraud continues. The afternoon of this day 1/13/2006, I received from Asadourian an overnight delivery with his proposed order and his letter dated January 9, 2005 in which Asadourian falsely tells the court that on 1/9/2006, "I have mailed a copy of the Order overnight mail to the Defendant Terence Finnan." The attached FEDEX Airbill is clearly mailed on 1/12/2006 by Asadourian.

RE: proposed Order I did not and do not consent to the Order. I objected to the service of the order and told the court that I was in poor health; that my doctor told me not to be in court; and I was under the influence of a drug that was medically prescribed for me that prevented me from effectively representing myself; and that I only appeared because the plaintiff was attempting take further marital assets before trial and I would have no where to live if I lost my home without trial.

I objected to the notice and service of the motion which Judge Dawson has written in his letter of 12/27/2005 was untimely. I objected that the court did not have jurisdiction to hear the motion and could not sua sponte entertain the motion as precedents in higher courts had affirmed. I objected to the sua sponte action of the Judge to allow Asadourian an extension from the requirement of the law to submit an order within 60 days.

The proposed order orders me to have done something within "30 days of September, 16, 2005 which is three months ago. This is in direct violation of law, the constitution of the State of New York and judicial ethics. Asadourian demeans the court by asking it to sign such an

I objected to the ex parte communications between the court and Asadourian. Asadourian is asking the court to disregard the law, the constitution, precedents and ethics.

Wherefore, because of the continuing fraud of Mr. Asadourian, I ask the court to sign my proposed order and not that order submitted by Asadourian.
