RE: Investigative Expose of the Readily-Verifiable Evidence of the Corruption of the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct

Dear Erin:

Following up our phone conversation on December 13th, in which you told me that a story about the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct was on tap for February, and my today's voice mail message about the editorial series on the Commission, appearing in The Albany Times Union, enclosed, for your convenience, are yesterday's and today's editorials "Privileged Chambers" and "Justice Denied".

Please let me know when you would like to arrange to interview me about the READILY-VERIFIABLE EVIDENCE of the Commission's corruption—embraced by my public interest lawsuit against the Commission, now en route to the Court of Appeals.

Meantime, enclosed is my recent Letter to the Editor, "Judicial Reforms", featured in the December 7, 2001 Daily News.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
