AFFIDAVIT OF PETITIONER, ANNEEN NINA GLORIA BAUM
IN SUPPORT OF PETITIONER'S
EFFORTS TO SERVE PARTIES

I, the undersigned, Anneen Nina Gloria Baum, do hereby state:

1. I retained Kenneth J. Manney Esq. and Patrick F. Roche on or about June 15th, 2013 to contest the "purported will" of my father, Seymour Baum, deceased.
2. I was constantly requesting updates as to the status of my file and whether parties had been served.
3. I had no less than 20 communications between myself and Mr. Manney regarding the status of my file and whether the parties had been served.
4. On or about October 15, 2013 I terminated my Attorneys due to their lack of communicating with me as to their inability to perfect service on the Respondents.
5. I had contacted several other attorneys to represent me thereafter and subsequently Mr. Guralnick filed his appearance on my behalf without my consent and I was surprised to learn that he had appeared on my behalf at a telephonic hearing without my knowledge.
6. Mr. Guralnick filed his motion to withdraw but not until after the Judge had ordered him to perfect service on all parties and required me to attend my deposition before he would allow Mr. Guralnick to withdraw. I complied and attended my deposition even though Mr. Guralnick was not present, but they were able to get him on the telephone.
7. To the best of my knowledge Mr. Guralnick did not serve any of the Respondents even though he represented to me that he had.
8. The Judge granted Mr. Guralnick's motion to withdraw on December 17th 2013 and ordered that the proceedings were stayed until February 17th, 2014, to allow me to obtain new counsel.
9. I complied with the Court's Orders as best as I could during this transition, attending my deposition and responding to discovery, including producing records.
10. On January 24th the office of Hoffman and Hoffman PA and Teresa Hoffman Esq. filed their Appearance on my behalf and service on all parties was promptly perfected.
