TO: Michael Cohen
Michael Caputo

Mr. Trump can easily defeat Governor Cuomo for re-election – and do so even without running against him! Indeed, Mr. Trump can simultaneously also defeat Attorney General Schneiderman, who, like Governor Cuomo, will otherwise coast to re-election. All it takes is a scandal exposing their flagrant corruption as New York's highest public officers.

This is what we offer Mr. Trump in furtherance of honest and functioning New York State government, such as we do NOT have, thanks to Governor Cuomo, Attorney General Schneiderman -- and a "who's who" of other public officers, also up for re-election this year, all of whom will go down with them.

The evidence-supported particulars that will enable Mr. Trump to champion the public good are posted on the website of our nonpartisan, nonprofit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), www.judgewatch.org, and concisely summarized by our April 15, 2013 corruption complaint against Cuomo and Schneiderman, et al., for their grand larceny of the public fisc and other corrupt acts. This April 15, 2013 complaint was filed with U.S. Attorney Preet Bharara and reading it and the substantiating proof it furnished will leave no doubt but that Governor Cuomo and Attorney General Schneiderman should long ago have been indicted for corruption, along with their high-ranking brethren in New York's three government branches. Yet, U.S. Attorney Bharara has been sitting on it. Likewise, all other public officers and entities to whom we have turned. Among these, the Joint Commission on Public Ethics and the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption, with whom Mr. Trump has filed his own complaints against Mr. Schneiderman. All have been flagrantly protecting and covering up for Governor Cuomo, Attorney General Schneiderman, and other corrupt public officers.

For your convenience, here's the direct link to the webpage of our September 17, 2013 oral and written testimony to the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption, as it not only links to our April 15, 2013 corruption complaint to U.S. Attorney Bharara and to our June 27, 2013 corruption complaint to the Joint Commission on Public Ethics, but to the succession of our other complaints against the Governor and Attorney General based thereon:

Needless to say, these document-substantiated corruption complaints would motivate and well-serve a multitude of would-be candidates for Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller, and for all 213 seats of New York's Legislature, including seats whose incumbents are deemed the most impregnable. I am furnishing them to Mr. Trump before furnishing them to all our state's major and minor parties because I think Mr. Trump – a master of competition – can most powerfully and efficiently jump-start competitive elections for 2014 and beyond.

I offer Mr. Trump my fullest assistance – and would appreciate hearing from you, as soon as possible, so that I may know how to proceed.

Thank you.
