RE: “Public Corruption Commission a dud” –

Dear Mr. Marlin --

Thank you for your excellent analysis. However, the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption is not just "a dud". It is utterly corrupt and has been brazenly protecting Governor Cuomo and other high-ranking public officers, Attorney General Schneiderman and Comptroller DiNapoli, among them. All are the subject of fully-documented corruption complaints, filed with the Commission, based on their "grand larceny of the fisc and other corrupt acts" in connection with the state budgets for this fiscal year and last -- for which they should long ago have been indicted. You can verify this, for yourself, as these complaints and the substantiating prima facie proof are posted on the website of our nonpartisan, nonprofit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), www.judgewatch.org -- accessible via our homepage link "CJA's People's Campaign to Hold the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption True to its Name & Announced Purpose".

Conservatives and Republicans, grappling with how to defeat Cuomo and secure the offices of Attorney General/Comptroller (for which they seemingly have not a single candidate on the horizon) -- as likewise to sweep legislative races -- have a huge opportunity if they would only avail themselves of the evidence of the corruption of the incumbents -- including their larceny of hundreds of millions of taxpayer dollars -- being covered up by the Commission.

As you are a scheduled speaker at the Conservative Party's January 26-27 annual political action conference in Albany, I wish to make you aware of my e-mails to the Conservative Party, Republican Party, and Messrs. Astorino, Paladino, and Trump on the subject. These are also accessible from our homepage, www.judgewatch.org., via the link entitled "Defeating Corrupt Incumbents in the 2014 Elections".

I hope this reaches you before then. I am unable to find any contact information for you -- and so am reaching out to you via this comment to your article "Public Corruption Commission a dud".

Feel free to call me. I would be pleased to be of service, in furtherance of fiscally-responsible, honest, and constitutional governance, such as we do not presently have.
