Former Bronx District Attorney Robert Johnson – now Supreme Court Justice

Attached is the Center for Judicial Accountability's October 14, 2016 conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint against each of the above district attorneys and former district attorney within your geographic jurisdiction. The referred-to substantiating evidence is posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, accessible from the prominent center link: "No Pay Raises for New York's Corrupt Public Officers – The Money Belongs to their Victims!", via its #14 menu listing "A New Round of Disciplinary & Criminal Complaints".

As required by the complaint form posted on your website, their addresses, office phone numbers, and e-mails are as follows:

In response to the two questions on your complaint form, those questions, with their answers, are as follows:

(1) Complaints to other agencies:

Have you filed a complaint concerning this matter with another Bar Association, District Attorney's Office or any other agency?

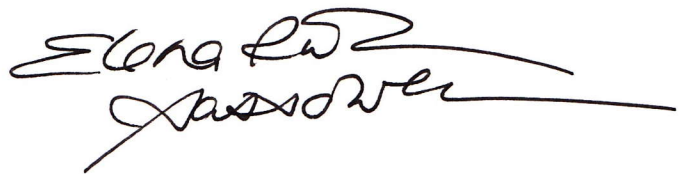

The answer is YES. This identical conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint is being furnished to the attorney disciplinary committees of the other three judicial departments so that they can address the violations committed by the district attorneys, acting district attorneys, and former district attorneys within their geographic jurisdictions.

Previously, I filed corruption complaints with the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption which raised, as a threshold issue, the conflicts-of-interest of its ten district attorney members. The Commission responded by completely ignoring the conflict-of-interest issue and purporting that the corruption complaints were "outside [its] mandate".

(2) Court action against attorney complained of:

Have you taken any civil or criminal action against the attorney?

The answer is NO.
