RE: Advancing Long-Overdue Non-Partisan, Good-Government Reform of Federal Judicial Selection/Confirmation, Etc.

Dear Professor Neuborne:

Upon e-mailing to Deborah Goldberg the enclosed September 16th memo addressed to her and to Allan Sobel, American Judicature Society's Vice President and Director, I received "an automatic response" that she is "out of the office and unable to retrieve e-mail September 14-28".

The September 16th memo requires expeditious attention and response. Therefore, I am directing it to you. Indeed, as the Brennan Center's Legal Director, who participated as a member of the Task Force on Judicial Selection of The Constitution Project (then known as "Citizens for Independent Courts"), it is more appropriate that the Brennan Center's response to the September 16th memo come from you, rather than Ms. Goldberg. Further, and as reflected by my unresponded-to February 21, 2001 and May 23, 2001 letters to you (posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org: "Correspondence: Organizations-Brennan Center"), you are even more familiar than she with CJA's meticulous, fully-documented work-product discussed in the September 16th memo.
