RE: CJA's June 16th memo on "Championing Basic Citizen Rights – and the Vital Importance of Citizen Participation in Federal Judicial Selection"

My yesterday's e-mail for you, sent to pmail@citizen.org -- the ONLY address your assistant, Eileen Walsh, would disgorge to me for you – has generated an automatic acknowledgment, advising "we do not open email attachments".

Consequently, I am faxing the attached three documents to 202-588-7795 – the fax number I had been given for Mr. Morrison, which Ms. Walsh stated I should use for you, as well. My prefatory message to yesterday's e-mail was as follows:

"This forwarded e-mail is for President Joan Claybrook, for whom I have left at least six urgent messages since June 26th – as summarized at footnote 5 of my attached September 10th letter to Barbara Reed, Director of The Constitution Project's Courts Initiative.

IF President Claybrook ACTUALLY believes that Alan Morrison's response to my June 16th memo (recounted in my June 19th e-mail to Tamar Scialo) was remotely appropriate – let alone for an organization promoting citizen participation and openness in government – and that she could simply ignore my repeated pleas for her supervisory oversight, she should so state in a letter that I can take to Public Citizen's Board of Directors.

Such letter should also state whether she – unlike Mr. Morrison – has read any of the documents underlying the June 16th memo, such as those the memo identifies as posted on the homepage of www.judgewatch.org

In any event, I reiterate my request for the names of the members of Public Citizen's Board of Directors.

Thank you."
