that is what sassower wants. If I could recommend it, you shd allay her concerns and send everything down here to Leecia--sassower is very concerned that the package she left with you folks get here. just explain there's a mail delay (I already have)

Hi Josh,

Got it.

I was actually just about to follow up on my last email. So you don't think I should forward to DC then? It seems like it would ordinarily go to DC (Leecia?), but if she has already sent documents there, then I guess not. To my understanding, she wants HRC to use her "blue slip" prerogative to prevent senate confirmation of several federal judges.

I just want to be sure that I shouldn't send this along.
