for brightening my day!

I think my last words to you in February, as you boarded an elevator at NY Law School, was that the "disruption of Congress" case was getting closer to you at the U.S. Supreme Court. This, because the D.C. Court of Appeals had rendered its decision on my appeal (in December) -- as to which (in January) I had filed a petition for rehearing, rehearing en banc, and to vacate for fraud, etc. Yesterday, I received the Court of Appeals' denial of the petition -- so now the clock begins for my filing a cert petition.

Will keep you posted on this important, politically-explosive case.

Elena

Attached is my memo of yesterday's date -- which came back as undeliverable, apparently because the enclosures exceeded size limits.

The four indicated enclosures to the memo will be sent in the next four successive e-mails.

Since I do not have an e-mail or other contact address for Lyle Denniston, an indicated recipient -- and Institute Directory Bybee & Assistant Director Obbie have refused to assist me in that regard -- I ask Dahlia Lithwick to kindly forward this and the next four e-mails on to Mr. Denniston, after
