Subject: When am I going to hear from you -- or other D.C. National Lawyers Guild Leadership?

Date: Fri, 29 Jun 2007 5:43 pm

Dear Mr. Drew,

It is now a full week since my June 22nd e-mail to you -- and I have not received from you or anyone else at the D.C. National Lawyers Guild any phone call or other communication regarding my straight-forward request for the D.C. Guild's amicus curiae participation before the U.S. Supreme Court in support of cert in the "disruption of Congress" case.

If you and other D.C. Guild leadership are intending to simply ignore this time-sensitive request, please at least so-advise me so that I might immediately direct my efforts to the national organization.

I would appreciate your answer no later than Tuesday, July 3rd, together with confirmation that my June 15th memo was transmitted to each and every D.C. Guild board member. Such memo is posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, most conveniently accessible via the top panel "Latest News", which is where the most recent draft of the cert petition is also posted.

Thank you.

Subject: Fwd: DC Chapter's Amicus Curiae Participation before US Supreme Court in "Disruption of Congress" Case

Dear Mr. Drew,

I look forward to speaking with you directly about the D.C. National Lawyers Guild's important amicus curiae participation at the U.S. Supreme Court in the "disruption of Congress" case. I will be available on Monday or whatever day next week is convenient for you.

My latest draft of the cert petition is posted on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, accessible via the top panel "Latest News". That is where my June 15th memo to the D.C. National Lawyers Guild is also posted, along with my other requests for amicus curiae and other assistance. Among these, my today's memo to Ralph Nader and a constellation of liberal and conservative organizations, enclosing POINT III of my appellant's brief challenging the constitutionality of the "disruption of Congress" statute, as written and as applied. If you -- and other D.C. Guild leaders -- have not read POINT III, I urge you to do so.

Thank you.

Hi, Elena- I don't maintain the information you seek. I am not a guild leader.

I understand that DC Guild board member Jim Drew (JDrewEsq@aol.com is the last E-address I have for him) plans to send you a reply to your request for an amicus brief.

Thanks. Jon

Dear Jon,

As soon as possible, please supply me with the names and telephone numbers of the D.C. Guild's leadership so that -- as you recommended -- I may contact them directly about my request for the D.C. Guild's amicus curiae participation before the U.S. Supreme Court in the "disruption of Congress" case.

To date, I have received no return call/e-mail from Mark Goldstone in response to my request for this basic information.

Nor have I received any confirmation from Stephanie Joseph, with whom I spoke on June 13th (when I called the D.C. Guild's posted phone number), that she e-mailed my June 15th memo for amicus curiae support to ALL members of the D.C. Guild's board -- confirmation I requested in voice mail messages I left for her on June 15th, June 18th, and June 21st. Nor have I heard from D.C. Guild's leaders in response to my June 15th memo and its express request to speak with them directly.

I trust you have seen the June 15th memo -- which I e-mailed to both you and Mark. In any event, it is posted with my latest draft cert petition on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, accessible via the top panel "Latest News".

Thank you.

Elena

Hi, Elena- How are you doing?

Thank you for your voice mail today, which requested amicus support for your cert petition to the Supreme Court. I very much feel that your conviction and sentence were unjust, and hope that you will prevail in the Supreme Court.

I understand from your message that Professor Horwitz intends to deliver a supportive filing with the Supreme Court. I think he submitted a very good amicus brief with the D.C. Court of Appeals.

The amicus brief that I filed in your case with the D.C. Court of Appeals was on behalf of and at the request of the National Lawyers Guild's D.C. Chapter. I do not hold a leadership position with the Guild, whether on a national or local basis. Consequently, feel free to contact directly any DC Guild leaders you wish, as to your cert petition. The DC Guild's website is <http://www.dcnlg.org/> ; the national Guild's website is <http://nlg.org> .

I do not plan to be involved with your case absent my being contacted by the local or national Guild leadership.

I wish you the best in your case. Thanks. Jon
