Kindly just shoot me the names and e-mails of the editors, so that I can keep them informed of developments.... and assist them with contextual reporting of our statewide public officers and Albany legislators.

Again, thank you.

Thank you Elena! I just sent your email to the editors. That is the extent of my involvement as the person who runs the business side of the company! Appreciate you being in touch and for all the kind words.

Best regards,
Adam

TO: Examiner Media Publisher Adam Stone

I again congratulate you on the first ten years of publication -- and thank you for your prompt return call yesterday.

As discussed, the amply resourced and staffed Gannett/Lo-Hud/Journal News has done the most minimal, superficial reporting on the race for Westchester county executive -- and it was not until the below September 18th e-mail -- my third -- that I received a call-back from anyone there regarding my August 10, 2017 OPEN LETTER about Senator Latimer's record in office, as a senator, disqualifying him from any office of public trust -- and questioning the multi-party endorsements he received for his candidacy as county executive. The call I received late in the afternoon on Monday, September 18th was from Lo-Hud/Journal News' "Watchdog Strategist" Frank Scandale: <http://www.lohud.com/staff/41511/frank-scandale/> -- and we had a productive conversation at that time. I am waiting to hear back from him.

Meantime, modest as The Examiner is, it has the opportunity to take the lead on reporting on the OPEN LETTER -- and getting responses from its indicated recipients -- beginning with Senator Latimer. What
