Likewise. And thanks for introducing me to your tenacious, long-standing efforts.

Although mounting challenges to every elected official in New York State is, to be frank and candid, beyond the Libertarian Party's present reach, I am confident that the candidates who do run on the Libertarian Party line will vigorously advocate smaller and smarter government and share your desire to rid the government of corruption wherever it may be.

Best wishes in your endeavors, toward those goals that we all share.

RL.
