Thank you, Barbara, for your e-mail – and for giving me more time to prepare for our conversation together.

Tuesday evening would be fine – or whenever works for you. Just be sure, when you call, to be in front of your computer, with accessibility to CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, as it posts everything you'll need to understand how easy it is for you – and other Green Party candidates – to knock out the collusive Democratic and Republican legislative incumbents, who cannot be re-elected, because they must be indicted for their corruption and larceny of taxpayer monies. This includes incumbent Assemblyman Brian Miller – and such is within the jurisdiction of all seven district attorneys of the seven counties spanned by the 101st Assembly district.

Our starting point – over and beyond the oath of office to which Assemblyman Miller swore, pursuant to Article XIII, §1 of the NYS Constitution, and Article VII, §§1-7 pertaining to the NYS budget, which Assemblyman Miller was duty-bound to uphold -- will be the ballotpedia entry for the 101st Assembly district: https://ballotpedia.org/New_York_State_Assembly_District_101, with its listing of $110,000 as the annual legislative salary.

Regards,

Elena
