Re: Hon. John R. Dunne

Honorable Sirs:

Most respectfully, I request to be heard in opposition to the nomination of Hon. John R. Dunne as Assistant U.S. Attorney General in charge of the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice; alternatively, that serious consideration be given to the contents of this communication.

My evidence irresistibly compels the conclusion that Mr. Dunne is singularly unqualified to serve in the nominated position.

I write as a native-born American citizen, a battle-starred veteran of World War II, and in obedience to my societal obligations to you, your body, and our country.

The media correctly reported (N.Y. Village Voice, June 6, 1989), that I summarily rejected an offer of $500,000 for my silence.

The documentary evidence to support the serious assertions made herein, and much more, is available for inspection by your committee, the Attorney General, and Mr. Dunne.

I submit that the conduct of Mr. Dunne in the egregious civil rights violations described herein borders on the criminal.

1a. In January 1987 I addressed the New York State Senate Judiciary Committee and exposed an extant and serious situation of high-level judicial corruption. Immediately thereafter, after thirty-eight (38) years of continuous and active practice, I was disbarred "forthwith".

b. Quintessential to the democratic representative process, as well as a fundamental First Amendment right, is that no person be punished by any governmental body for voluntarily giving truthful testimony to a legislative committee.

c. Mr. Dunne, as Chairman of the State Senate Judiciary Committee, did and said absolutely nothing about such retaliatory professional 'death penalty' decree!

2a. Under trialless, manifestly unconstitutional, non-summary criminal contempt scenarios (see Nye v. U.S., 313 U.S. 33; Bloom v. Illinois, 391 U.S. 194), I have repeatedly been adjudicated guilty, incarcerated and/or fined for my refusal to abandon the legitimate rights of my client and remain silent about high-level judicial corruption.

b. Mr. Dunne did and said absolutely nothing about such trialless convictions, incarcerations and/or fines!

3a. Sam Polur, Esq., a native born citizen, without a trial or opportunity for same, was also unconstitutionally found guilty and incarcerated for resisting the same corrupt judicial activities.

b. Mr. Dunne did and said nothing!

c. The disciplinary proceedings against Mr. Polur were terminated when he agreed to leave the scene and remain silent concerning judicial corruption. The message conveyed to members of the bar has been made crystal clear.

4a. Hyman Raffe, also a born citizen, residing in the same county as Mr. Dunne, under the same trialless scenarios, was also found guilty and sentenced to be incarcerated.

b. However, Mr. Raffe, by extortion payments of "more than $2.5 million" to private 'indulgence peddlers', has avoided being incarcerated. Evidence of such payments are supported by cancelled checks, and other documentary evidence and has been verified by the media (e.g., N.Y. Village Voice, June 6, 1989; New Jersey Law Journal, July 13, 1989; Ottawa Illinois, Daily Times, June 17, 1989; Hibbing, Minn., Daily Tribune, June 18, 1989).

c. As long as Raffe continues such substantial extortion payments to these private 'judicial cronies' he will not be incarcerated, according to the written agreement.

d. In Mr. Raffe words "They are bleeding me to death"!

e. Mr. Dunne did and said nothing about extortion being exacted by the judiciary and their cronies for their own private purposes.

5a. Puccini Clothes, Ltd. was involuntarily dissolved on June 4, 1980. Despite its dissolved status, it remains a 'person' within the meaning of the XIV Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and its assets are held under "color of law".

b. In every American jurisdiction, a court-appointed receiver must account for his stewardship. In New York, the mandatory periodic requirement for a filed accounting by the court-appointed receiver is "at least once a year" (22 NYCRR §202.52[e]).

c. In the almost ten (10) years that has elapsed since Puccini was involuntarily dissolved, not a single accounting has been filed or rendered for this involuntarily dissolved constitutional "person".

d. By larceny and plundering the 'cronies' of the judiciary took all of Puccini's judicial trust assets, leaving absolutely nothing for its legitimate creditors and stockholders.

e. Those who have vested interests in such constitutional person, and/or their attorneys, who resisted such criminal racketeering practices, have had to endure a 'reign of judicial terror', which included, as heretofore set forth, trialless convictions, incarcerations, extortion, disbarment and must more.

f. Mr. Dunne has said and done absolutely nothing to protect the civil rights of Puccini, a constitutional 'person', those 'persons' having vested interests in Puccini, and/or their attorneys.

6a. Dennis F. Vilella, a college graduate, married with two small children, very active in local civic matters, including the Boy Scouts, had a clean criminal record.

b. Mr. Vilella is also a born citizen and army veteran, who is a resident of Mr. Dunne's bailiwick of Nassau County.

February 7, 1990

c. Mr. Vilella, a pro se defendant, has been incarcerated for almost three (3) years, under a potential maximum term of twenty-five (25) years, for crimes that never occurred, as is briefly here demonstrated.

d. Annexed is the entire testimony of Mrs. Theresa Nappi [Lady Rasputin] (Exhibit "A"), and her hospital X-Ray and Cat-Scan records, which the District Attorney of Nassau County, aided and abetted by the trial judge, deliberately concealed from the jury (Exhibits "B-1" and "B-2").

e. In addition thereto, the hospital "Trauma Assessment Record", also made the same day Lady Rasputin was admitted, reveals normal pupils, normal leg and hand reactions and movements, and the highest possible non-coma score.

The hospital consultation report of Lady Rasputin states:

"coherent ... no overt thinking disorder. She is cooperative and fairly verbal. No auditory trouble ..., no delusions. ... Sensories intact. Short term memory good. ... Insight good."

f. Unquestionably, even the mystic Rasputin could not endure this repeated, vicious, "tire iron" attempted murder assault, and obtain such negative skull and brain reports, and no juror would have so found had these hospital records not been deliberately concealed.

g. If your committee communicates with District Attorney Denis Dillon (262 Old Country Road, Mineola, New York 11501 [516-535-3800]), or compels his testimony, you will find that, faced with such dramatic hospital records, he does not have a single person who will state that such crimes could have possibly been committed by Mr. Vilella or anyone else.

In legal terms, there is no corpus delicti to support the conviction.

h. Mr. Dunne has said and done nothing concerning this outrage to civilized society!

7a. A review of the entire matter, will irresistibly compel the conclusion that Vilella's incarceration was intended as leverage in order to secure my silence.

b. In short, in this 'Beirut on the Hudson' depraved and depraved scenario, Vilella was and is a hostage in an American prison.

c. I have repeatedly stated that I will not deal with these 'judicial terrorists', which is consistent with American foreign policy, and to his personal credit, Mr. Vilella has never requested me to agree to remain silent in order to gain his freedom.

d. Mr. Dunne has said and done nothing!

8. Whatever other qualifications Mr. Dunne may have, his past record, as set forth herein, clearly does not support even a low-level assignment in the Civil Rights Division, or so I contend.

9. I assure you, your committee, and the Congress of my full and complete cooperation in any inquiry that may be undertaken in this or any other matter.

Most Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
