Dear Congresswoman Lowey,

I received this day from your office the enclosed copy of a letter from Chief Judge Charles L. Brieant, dated January 23, 1990.

I remind you of your oath of office concerning obedience to the U.S. Constitution, and draw your attention specifically to the VI Amendment concerning "public trial(s)", which this corrupt tyrant is denying to every defendant being tried in White Plains.

Your "duty" is crystal clear, and under the circumstances I expect you to promptly initiate impeachment proceedings.

Most Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
