FROM: Elena Ruth Sassower, Coordinator

Dear Mr. Schwing:

This fax confirms our rather remarkable conversation--wherein it took at least ten minutes for you to divulge the name of a superior--other than Senator Biden--who is in a position to authorize review of the critique we submitted to the Senate Judiciary Committee last May.

Since you identified Ms. Cynthia Hogan as Staff Director at the Senate Judiciary Committee, I requested that you access for her review our critique and compendium of exhibits. Please also be sure to provide her with our May 18, 1992 letter to Senate Majority Leader Mitchell, as well as our June 2, 1992 letter to the Senate Majority Leader--which is a supplementation and update to the critique.

As discussed, we will, yet again, call the Senate Judiciary Committee late on Monday--if we do not hear from Ms. Hogan or from someone else in authority at the Senate Judiciary Committee until then.

Because of the appalling fashion in which the Senate Judiciary Committee has dealt with this serious matter concerning the integrity of the screening process, I am presently clearing my schedule for next Thursday to personally come down to Washington.

Meantime, I enclose a letter sent today to the new Chairman of the ABA's Standing Committee on Federal Judiciary.
