Dear Ms. Sassower:

Our offices at 120 Broadway reopened on Monday, September 24, 2001. Most of our telephone and facsimile lines remain nonfunctional. This is true for most of the buildings in the immediate area, and at present we do not know when our service will be restored. You may find email to be the most convenient way to communicate with us for the time being.

In any event, because we could not return to our offices for some time after the destruction of the World Trade Center, Mr. Belohlavek did not receive your critique until September 24, 2001. Given the backlog of work we face, it is not possible for anyone from this office to review your critique by the September 26, 2001 deadline set in your September 17, 2001 letter to Mr. Belohlavek. Any review would require another adjournment of the motion date.

Very truly yours,
Carol Fischer
