Dear Mr. Whelan,

There are two "complaints" --

The FIRST: Ms. Halligan's official misconduct as NYS Solicitor General.

Its particulars are summarized by CJA's March 9th letters to the Senate Judiciary Committee -- both the Democratic majority & Republican minority sides. For your convenience, these essentially identical 2-page letters are attached.

The SECOND: the "serious dysfunction at the Senate Judiciary Committee, voiding the integrity of its March 10th party-line vote and making it otherwise improper to proceed with Senate confirmation".

Its particulars are summarized by CJA's March 14th letters to Senate Majority Leader Reid and Senate Minority Leader McConnell. For your convenience, these essentially identical 2-1/2 page letters are attached.

I think each of these letters is quite clear -- as, likewise, the dedicated webpage of our website, posting the letters with an abundance of substantiating proof -- <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/judicial-selection/federal/judicial-selection-fed-2011.htm> . Let me know if I'm mistaken.

Thank you, genuinely. I look forward to assisting your scholarship & powerful commentary.

Dear Ms. Sassower:

I've now spent more time than I would have liked trying to wade through your bewildering series of complaints about the process, and I have no clear understanding what your substantive complaint about Halligan is. If you would send me a concise statement directed to that matter, I will read it.

Ed Whelan
