Dear Ms. Sassower:

I am replying to your request under the Freedom of Information Law for the confirmation hearings of Justice Howard Levine to the New York State Court of Appeals, held on September 7, 1993, and the Senate session immediately following wherein Justice Levine's nomination was presented and the nomination confirmed.

This information is available under the Freedom of Information Law. As soon as the transcripts become available, we will inform you of the cost. According to our stenographer, the page count will be approximately 140 pages. The cost to you would be at the rate of $.10 per page). When the count becomes final, I will request that you submit a certified check in that amount. The material will then be sent to you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Stephen F. Sloan".

Stephen F. Sloan
