Re: File No. 2017/A-0167

Dear Ms. Sassower:

The Commission has asked me to respond to your correspondence dated December 26 and 27, 2017.

The Commission carefully considered your recent allegations concerning the judge mentioned in your previous complaint. Your recent correspondence does not contain any information that would change the Commission's decision dismissing your earlier complaint. The issues you raise concerning the judge and her decisions can only be determined by the courts.

As I previously advised you, since the Commission's records and proceedings are confidential pursuant to Judiciary Law Section 45, with limited exceptions that do not apply to dismissed complaints, I am unable to provide any additional information concerning the Commission's consideration of your complaints.

Very truly yours,

Jean M. Savanyu
