TO: Assistant Solicitor General Frederick Brodie

Upon receipt of your below e-mail, I checked with the Appellate Division, Third Department to ascertain whether it received my yesterday's e-mail – which it had. Likewise, it received the second e-mail, to which you replied. The staffer with whom I spoke was Julianne (518-471-4779).

Did Attorney General Underwood, Assistant Solicitor General Paladino, and the other supervisory/managerial attorneys to whom I sent yesterday's e-mail, also not receive it? And did none contact you about it, in discharge of their oversight duties?

Elena Sassower, unrepresented plaintiff-appellant

Dear Ms. Sassower,

I have checked both the in-box and deleted-items file on my computer, but I do not see your December 13 email. It must not have reached me for some reason.

In response to your email, the respondents will not withdraw their memorandum in opposition to your motion in the Appellate Division.

Very truly yours,
