Dear Assistant Solicitor General Brodie --

Plaintiffs' appeal papers are essentially done -- and are posted on CJA's webpage, at #6, here:

<http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/budget/citizen-taxpayer-action/complaints-notice/moving-forward-appeal.htm>.

The brief will be re-sent to you, tomorrow, bearing a July 4th date. I will then turn to drafting the order to show cause, with preliminary injunction and TRO -- and will send it to you when it is complete, hopefully, by Monday, July 9th.

To accommodate your schedule, I will postpone presenting it, at the Appellate Division, to Wednesday, July 11th.

As I am rushed now, I cannot write more, but I did want you to have the essentially completed appeal papers and the July 11th date before you left for your July 4th holiday.

Thank you.

Dear Assistant Solicitor General Brodie --

I have just discovered your e-mail. As I am rushed for time, I am responding only to the extent of furnishing you with the pdf of the Record on Appeal, which I transmitted to the printer yesterday morning. It is posted on CJA's website, here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/budget/citizen-taxpayer-action/complaints-notice/moving-forward-appeal.htm>.

I will respond further, as soon as I am able.

Thank you.
