Dear Ms. Sassower,

Thank you for your latest email. As before, I will respond to your points in the order they appear.

1. The three-volume record should reflect the revisions that we have negotiated over the past few days. I assume there is no need to check each page again.
2. I have signed the stipulation and sent it to you by first-class mail. A pdf copy is attached. Before signing, I have crossed off the statement that you are appearing "as Director of the Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc., and on behalf of the People of the State of New York & the Public Interest," because I do not stipulate to your appearing in those alleged capacities. If you wish, you may sign a separate copy of the stipulation and attach that to mine. That way, both of us will have stipulated to the record and you can maintain (in your copy) that you are entitled to represent persons other than yourself.
3. I will review your brief when it is served on me. I will respond to your brief in accordance with the CPLR and as the Appellate Division may direct and permit.
4. I previously responded to your argument that you are entitled to some formal determination by the Attorney General on the merits of your appeal. See item 10 of my email of June 27, 2018 at 10:36 a.m.

Very truly yours,
