Subject: Message for Help, via Gov't Justice Center website -- CJA's citizen-taxpayer action challenging the legislative, judiciary, and executive budgets -- plus closed-door party conferences & "3-men-in-a-room" budget deal-making Immediately upon receiving the attached e-mail from Tim Hoefer, announcing the “new Government Justice Center”, whose purpose is “bringing legal challenges to government overreach”, I jumped onto its website – and then just as immediately made application for help via the Center’s “Apply for Help” webpage: <https://www.govjustice.org/apply-for-help/>. In my haste, I neglected to make a copy – and none has come back to me, as confirmation of my request. The attachments to my message for help are above.

For my records, would you kindly furnish the message to me.

Thank you.

both unrepresented plaintiffs, seeking help, in citizen-taxpayer action, challenging the constitutionality & lawfulness of the legislative budget, the judiciary budget, behind-closed-doors legislative party conferences, substituting for open committee meetings, and “3-men-in-the-room” budget dealmaking – whose posture, verifiable from the record, is SUMMARY JUDGMENT for the plaintiffs: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/budget/menu-budget-reform.htm>
