TO: Stephanie Herrick/Legislative Director – Assemblyman William Barclay, ESQ.

Following up our phone conversation a short time ago, for which I thank you, this is to reiterate my request that Assembly Ways and Means Committee Ranking Member Barclay consider posting the minority's Green Book/analysis of the budget.

In any event, I thank you for agreeing to supply me -- as you had in past years, while working for Assemblyman Oaks -- with the pertinent pages of the Green Book pertaining to the Judiciary and Legislative budgets -- and to the "public protection" section, particularly with respect to district attorney salaries and reimbursement to the counties.

Below is the e-mail I sent yesterday to Senate Finance Committee Ranking Member Seward -- which I also sent to Assemblyman Barclay, in addition to Senator Krueger and Assemblywoman Weinstein -- with a request for responses by Thursday, February 14th so that I might include same in the written testimony I hope to present.

Thank you.

Subject: QUESTIONS: (1) CJA's citizen-taxpayer action, suing the Legislature for its corruption with respect to the budget; (2) the fiscal committees' Jan. 15, 2019 announcement of their joint budget hearings; & (3) "full-time" v. "part-time" legislators

TO: Senate Finance Committee Ranking Member James Seward

This follows up my phone call to your office earlier today, and my conversation with your secretary Laurie, who requested that I put my question in writing. The question was whether you are aware of the Center for Judicial Accountability's citizen-taxpayer action, suing the Legislature for its corruption with respect to the budget?

Both Senate Finance Committee Chair Liz Krueger and Assembly Ways and Means Committee Chair Helene Weinstein, ESQ. have been knowledgeable of the citizen-taxpayer action -- and its predecessor citizen-taxpayer action -- for years. As for Assembly Ways and Means Committee Ranking Member William Barclay, ESQ., my below January 18, 2019
