AGENDA

NYS Assembly Ethics and Guidance Committee
January 17, 2018
Meeting in Room 944A-LOB

- A. Motion to grant committee clerk access to confidential information
 - a. Pursuant to Section 73(8) of the New York States Civil Rights Laws, which sets forth a code for fair procedures for investigating agencies, the Assembly's Committee on Ethics and Guidance is permitted to grant the access to the confidential information handled by this committee with the approval of a majority of the members of this Committee. I move to grant Megan Bowles immediate access to the confidential information that has been or will be considered by the Ethics and Guidance Committee so that she can assist the Committee in performing administrative tasks that will allow it to be more efficient in the use of outside counsel. I have provided each of you a copy of her resume. See Resume of M. Bowles.
- B. Motion to convene in Executive Session
 - a. Because the Committee will be discussing matters which may lead to the discipline of a particular person, I hereby move—pursuant to the provisions of Public Officers Law § 105—that this Committee conduct its meeting relative to this matter in executive session at which only the members of this Committee and its counsels may be present.
