1. Have you filed a complaint concerning this matter with another attorney grievance committee, state attorney general's office or any other agency?

YES. I filed this identical February 11, 2021 conflict-of-interest/corruption complaint with the Second Department Attorney Grievance Committee (for the Second, Eleventh, and Thirteenth Districts), with respect to Attorney General James, and with the First Department Attorney Grievance Committee, with respect to Solicitor General Underwood.

I also filed a related February 7, 2021 conflict-of-interest/corruption complaint with the Commission on Judicial Conduct against the judges of the Court of Appeals, Appellate Division, Third Department, and against Chief Administrative Judge Marks for covering up the misconduct of the Attorney General's office that is the subject of this complaint – and the February 11, 2021 complaint encloses it.

On March 5, 2021, I additionally filed a conflict-of-interest/ethics complaint against Attorney General James with the Joint Commission on Public Ethics (JCOPE), furnishing, in substantiation, the February 11, 2021 complaint and its enclosed February 7, 2021 complaint. This March 5, 2021 complaint was filed at the advice/direction of Albany County District Attorney P. David Soares, to whom I had filed a June 4, 2020 grand jury/public corruption complaint pertaining to the fraudulent pay raises of which Attorney General James is a beneficiary, enabled by her litigation fraud to defeat lawsuit challenge to them – and the budget.

Based on the June 4, 2020 grand jury/public corruption complaint – and 61 materially-identical grand jury/public corruption complaints I thereafter filed with New York's 62 other district attorneys – I also filed a November 4, 2020 corruption complaint with Acting U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of New York Antoinette Bacon, which, by a December 19, 2020 letter, I then sent to the Acting U.S. Attorneys for the Southern, Eastern, and Western Districts of New York.

Action Taken: None, as yet, except Chief Counsel of the Second Department Attorney Grievance Committee for the Second, Eleventh, and Thirteenth Districts Diana Maxfield Kearse advised, by a March 3, 2021 letter, that although Attorney General James was admitted in the Second Department, she is “currently registered at a business address in Manhattan” and, “[a]s such, the appropriate Grievance Committee is the one in the First Department”, noting that I had also sent my complaint to it.

2. Have you brought a civil action against this attorney? NO.
3. Are you represented by an attorney? NO.
4. Are you an attorney? NO.

Details of the February 11, 2021 Complaint against Assistant Solicitor General Frederick Brodie

Assistant Solicitor General Frederick Brodie was the attorney assigned by the office of then Attorney General Underwood to defend against the plaintiff-appellants' appeal of the citizen-taxpayer action Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. v. Cuomo...Schneiderman...DiFiore (Albany Co. #5122-16) at the Appellate Division, Third Department and by the office of Attorney General James to defend against their appeal before the Court of Appeals. Having NO legitimate defense, he engaged in litigation fraud before both those courts – and was rewarded with fraudulent judicial decisions by judges who were without jurisdiction to render them by reason of their financial and other interests, proscribed by Judiciary Law §14 and Court of Appeals' caselaw, beginning with Oakley v. Aspinwall, 3 NY 547 (1850). This is particularized by plaintiff-appellants' submissions to those courts, furnishing line-by-line “legal autopsies”/analyses of his filings and of his oral advocacy on August 2, 2018 and November 3, 2018 before the Appellate Division, Third Department – and of the judicial decisions.

Exhibits E and D to the February 11, 2021 complaint furnish inventories of these submissions at the Appellate Division, Third Department and at the Court of Appeals, respectively. This is further reinforced – and amplified – by plaintiff-appellants' February 7, 2021 judicial misconduct complaint, filed with the Commission on Judicial Conduct, enclosed with the February 11, 2021 complaint (at p. 10).
