TO: Third Department Attorney Grievance Committee

On April 30, 2021, three days after sending you the below e-mail, without response, I telephoned your office (518-285-8350) to ascertain the situation. I spoke initially to Jodie, who told me that numbers assigned to complaints are "internal" and "confidential". She thereafter transferred my call to investigator Christine Adams, who told me the same thing and that the Committee has 60 days to respond to my February 11th complaint – which she said was 60 days from the Committee's receipt, on April 5th, of my individualized April 3rd complaint forms, with specifics. She also stated that there was no need for me to send a hard copy of my above-attached substantiating analysis of the Appellate Division, Third Department's March 18, 2021 decision in Delgado v. New York State, sent by my below April 27th e-mail.

60 days from your April 5th receipt was June 4th – and I have received no communication from you.

Haven't you – by now – sent the complaint and individualized forms and specifics to Asst. Solicitors General Victor Paladino and Frederick Brodie and to Asst. Attorneys General Helena Lynch and Christopher Liberati-Conant for their responses pursuant to §1240.7(b)(2) and §1240.7(c) of the Appellate Division Rules for Attorney Disciplinary Matters? And why have you not sent me their responses for reply? Isn't that the normal and customary procedure? Also, did you not wish me to appear before the Committee and its investigators pursuant to §1240.7(d)(2) – or even to be interviewed by your Chief Attorney pursuant to §1240.7(b)(1)?

Please advise without further delay.

Thank you.
