Dear Peter,

I did not receive any response to my below July 16th e-mail to you – and have, meantime, dropped the other shoe on JCOPE (the Joint Commission on Public Ethics), as I said I would.

Here's the link to the menu webpage from which you can access the substantiating proof for my attached yesterday's letter to JCOPE, which I wrote "As an aid to US Attorney Bharara", who has subpoenaed all complaints filed with it: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/commission-to-investigate-public-corruption/holding-to-account/exposing-jcope.htm>

If you are not going to seize the opportunity of this powerful, politically-explosive story – one which is intertwined with judicial conflicts of interest about which you contacted me for a story – kindly confirm that you have alerted your journalist colleagues to it. Kindly, too, send me a copy of your judicial conflict of interest story, if it has already been published.

As always, I am available to answer questions and to be interviewed.

Thank you.

Subject: Making an Electoral Difference: A SCOOP FOR YOU! The Unappointed Review Commission for JCOPE, etc.

Dear Peter,

What's the status of this scoop? I am holding off on calling other journalists about it so as to give the scoop to you – or to colleagues of yours worthy of this big story... All the appointing authorities are up for re-election – and will be re-elected absent reporting on their corruption in office. This story WILL make the difference...

Please advise, ASAP – as, additionally, I have another shoe to drop on JCOPE.

Thanks.
