RE: "Borrello Calls For Policy Removal" (March 24, 2020)

Senator Borrello is ranking member of the Senate Committee on Budget and Revenues: <https://www.nysenate.gov/senators/george-m-borrello/about>. Why is he writing to Governor Cuomo, Senate Majority Leader Stewart-Cousins, and Assembly Speaker Heastie – on stationary that does not reflect that position – asking for “consideration” that the budget not be filled with policy and non-budgetary matters: https://www.nysenate.gov/sites/default/files/press-release/attachment/ltr from sen. borrello to gov. cuomo state leaders re budget process.pdf. As ranking member of the Senate Committee on Budget and Revenues – and consistent with the duties he owes the People of the State of New York – he should be pointing out that such non-fiscal matter must be removed because it is UNCONSTITUTIONAL – and his letter should be co-signed by a long list of fellow legislators, beginning with those sharing the designations he bears of the Republican, Conservative, Libertarian, and Independence Parties.

Four days before Senator Borrello’s March 22, 2020 letter, our nonpartisan, non-profit citizens’ organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), sent Governor Cuomo the above-attached March 18, 2020 letter pertaining to the UNCONSTITUTIONALITY of his policy-packed budget. Entitled "GOOD NEWS DURING THE CORONAVIRUS EMERGENCY: You Can Chuck 6 of the 7 'Article VII Bills' Because They are Unconstitutional. Here's why...", it was accompanied by a webpage on CJA’s website, posting the referred-to evidentiary proof to facilitate verification: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2020-legislative/3-18-20-ltr-to-gov.htm>.

Below are the two e-mails that transmitted CJA’s March 18, 2020 letter to Governor Cuomo – and, simultaneously, to the 15 Legislative Leaders who receive stipends for the “significantly more work” and “additional duties” they perform. Did NONE of these 15 Legislative Leaders – including Assembly Minority Leader Pro Tempore Andy Goodell, Esq. – see fit to apprise Senator Borrello of the March 18, 2020 letter, as ranking member of the Senate Committee on Budget and Revenues? And what about CJA’s February 18, 2020 and March 3, 2020 letters to Governor Cuomo, also detailing the unconstitutionality and fraudulence of his FY2020-2021 executive budget – also sent to the 15 Legislative Leaders by e-mail.

As this is an election year, It is all the more imperative that you ask Senator Borrelli about his knowledge of these three important letters – and, additionally, of CJA’s two sets of written questions detailing the unconstitutionality, unlawfulness, and fraudulence of the FY2020-2021 Legislative and Judiciary budgets and the Governor’s FY2020-2021 Legislative/Judiciary appropriations bill, submitted for the record of the Legislature’s February 12, 2020 “public protection” budget hearing. What steps has he taken – or will he take – to verify their accuracy? When can we expect his release of findings of fact and conclusions of law as to each? For your convenience, all the foregoing is accessible via CJA’s menu page for the 2020 Legislative Session, here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2020-legislative/2020-session-menu.htm>.

Needless to say, if it is Senator Borrello's view that CJA's evidence-based, law-supported presentations pertaining to the FY2020-2021 budget can just be ignored, while he pumps out public statements, such as his March 23, 2020 release "Budget should not be used as a vehicle for advancing a political agenda": <https://www.nysenate.gov/newsroom/press-releases/george-m-borrello/senator-borrello-calls-state-leaders-keep-budget-fiscally> – which is far more championing of the public's rights than his softer-toned, deferential March 22, 2020 letter – the voters in New York's 57th Senate District need to know about it, pronto!

Prior to sending this e-mail, I called Senator Borrello's Albany office (518-455-3563), leaving a voice mail message at approximately 9:45 am. Immediately thereafter, I called his district office in Jamestown (716-664-4603), but there was no pick-up.

By copy of this e-mail to Senator Borrello, I request his response to the foregoing and, additionally, that he identify whether – either prior or following his appointment as ranking member of the Senate Committee on Budget and Revenues – he was ever informed of CJA's citizen-taxpayer action, at the Court of Appeals, suing all three government branches for unconstitutionality and unlawfulness with respect to the entirety of the state budget and the "force of law" commission-based judicial pay raises it embeds – the subject of devastating e-mail communications from me, last year, to all members of the Senate Committee on Budget and Revenues: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2019-legislative/senate-budget-revenues.htm>.

Finally, so that voters of the 150th Assembly District can hold Assembly Minority Leader Pro Tempore Goodell to account – and so that the Post-Journal can, likewise, discharge its constitutional function with respect to him -- a copy of this e-mail is also being sent to Assemblyman Goodell for response. What are his findings of facts and conclusions of law with respect to each of CJA's three letters to Governor Cuomo? How about with respect to CJA's two sets of written questions pertaining to the FY2020-2021 Legislative and Judiciary budgets and the Governor's Legislative/Judiciary appropriations bill, largely replicating the two sets of questions he was furnished last year, for FY2019-2020, with written testimony, because he was then – as now -- a member of the Assembly Committee on Governmental Operations: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2019-legislative/assembly-gov-operations.htm> and the Assembly Judiciary Committee: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2019-legislative/judiciary.htm>.

A short time ago, after calling Assemblyman Goodell's Albany office (518-455-4511) and leaving a voice mail message, I called his Jamestown district office (716-664-7773) and spoke with his chief of staff, Elizabeth Rankin, about the foregoing. She is expecting this e-mail.

I am available to assist you, to the max, on this MAJOR story. When can I expect your call?

Thank you.
