Subject: ALERT/LEAD -- & CONTACT PROTOCOL: (1) NYS budget, (2) "ethics reform", (3) the 2022 elections -- & the explosive testimony, germane to ALL three, at the Legislature's Jan. 25, 2022 "public protection" budget hearing

TO: The New York Times

On Friday, March 11, 2022, after sending the below e-mail concerning (1) the NYS budget; (2) "ethics reform"; and (3) the 2022 elections, I received an almost instantaneous automated acknowledgment from the Times Editorial Board, stating:

"Questions beyond the Opinion section? ... Tips can be shared at nytimes.com/tips."

This I am now doing, by this e-mail to the e-mail address therein indicated: tips@nytimes.com – as I have yet to receive any other response from the Editorial Board – and no responses from new Albany Bureau Chief Ferre-Sadurni, to whom my March 11, 2022 e-mail was addressed, or from the other indicated recipients: Albany correspondent Grace Ashford, Metro, and former Albany Bureau Chief Jesse McKinley.

However, with regard to the further instruction on the Editorial Board's automated acknowledgment:

"To email a reporter about a story idea or to provide feedback on a story, click on the reporter's byline and choose 'email author.' More contacts for The New York Times can be found here and additional FAQs here",

I have NO idea what you are talking about – and re-subscribed to the Times, which I had discontinued last June, for the SOLE purpose of ascertaining whether there was ANY change from what I had previously seen, namely, that the Times' posting of "the reporter's byline" does NOT link to any option for "email author". Indeed, I believe the Times dropped that responsible, helpful, accountability feature YEARS AGO. Nor have I found ANY directory of reporters' names and e-mails – or the names and e-mails of relevant editors.

If I am mistaken, please advise. Otherwise, change your incorrect instructions.

BTW, what are the e-mail addresses for "Jim Dao and Dean Chang" who announced "A Promotion for Luis Ferre-Sadurni". Their e-mail addresses are not on the March 10, 2022 announcement – and, using the “search” feature of the Times website, I can barely find Metro Editor James Dao and cannot find, at all, Deputy Metro Editor Dean Chang, let alone their e-mail addresses.

The Times website – which I believe LONG AGO posted a general phone number that connected to a switchboard operator – now only has a user-friendless “customer service” number (855-698-1157) that deals with billings and subscriptions. Fortunately, I had the prior number, 212-556-1234, and upon calling it last Friday, at about 4:20 pm, got voice options enabling me to eventually connect to the Metro desk. My call was answered by Metro assistant Reagan, who stated – after checking – that she could not give me the e-mail address of Nicholas Fandos, who has written many of the Times’ recent articles about the New York political scene and whose byline link identifies him as “a reporter on the Metro desk...covering New York State politics”. Her stated reason was “security concerns” – and she told me the same in response to my requests for e-mail addresses for Messrs. Dao and Chang.

Apparently, however, Mr. Fandos does not himself have such “safety concerns”, as I thereafter found his e-mail address on his “Linked-In” webpage.

Thank you.

Subject: ALERT/LEAD: (1) NYS budget, (2) "ethics reform", (3) the 2022 elections -- & the explosive testimony, germane to ALL three, at the Legislature's Jan. 25, 2022 "public protection" budget hearing

TO: Luis Ferre-Sadurni/New York Times Albany Bureau Chief

Congratulations on your new position as New York Times Albany bureau chief – the subject of yesterday’s announcement "A Promotion for Luis Ferre-Sadurni".

I trust you would agree that the big, happening-now stories for the Albany bureau are: (1) the New York State budget; (2) “ethics reform”; and (3) the Albany incumbents running for re-election and higher office in the 2022 elections.

Germane to all three – and establishing MAJOR, interlocking stories of corruption and deceit – is my below e-mail sent earlier today, most importantly to state Senator Biaggi, chair of the Senate Committee on Ethics and Internal Governance, running for NY’s 3rd congressional seat, whose endorsement by 12 state senators was reported by the press on February 28th – and Senator Krueger, chair of the Senate Finance Committee, running for re-election, whose endorsement, with Senate Majority Leader Stewart-

Cousins and dozens of other incumbent state legislators, by the Working Families Party was reported on February 25th.

Kindly confirm that you will be taking 10 minutes or so to read my written testimony and 3-minute oral testimony which I presented for, and at, the Legislature's January 25, 2022 "public protection" budget hearing. CJA's webpage for the January 25, 2022 hearing – from which ALL the referred-to EVIDENTIARY substantiation is accessible and also posting the Senate and Assembly VIDEOS of the hearing, is here.

I look forward to speaking with you directly – and am reachable early morning, late at night, and throughout the weekends.

Thank you.

Reference is made to the December 9, 2021 public hearing of the Senate Committee on Ethics and Internal Governance.

Pursuant to Senate Rule XIV – and in keeping with Senate Ethics and Internal Governance Committee Chair Biaggi’s public posturing about transparency – this is to request:

- (1) all written statements submitted for the December 9th hearing by the witnesses who were “invited” to testify;
- (2) all written statements submitted by others, most importantly, those NOT “invited” to testify;
- (3) all written invitation(s) from Chair Biaggi and “Co-Sponsor” Krueger to those “invited” to testify – and, particularly, (a) the Joint Commission on Public Ethics; (b) the Legislative Ethics Commission; (c) the NYS Inspector General; (d) the NYS Attorney General and/or its Public Integrity Bureau; (e) the NYS Comptroller; (f) the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct; (g) the Unified Court System’s Inspector General; (h) NYS’ eight attorney grievance committees – and, as to each, their written responses thereto;
- (4) all written requests to testify, in addition to the three written requests I made by the below November 8th, November 15th, and November 30th e-mails – and the written responses thereto, including to my below three e-mails, apart from the December 9th e-mail from Senator Biaggi’s Chief of Staff Jordine Jones;
- (5) all press releases/public announcements about the December 9th hearing by the Senate Ethics and Internal Governance Committee, Senator Biaggi, or the Senate.

Thank you.

Subject: YET AGAIN & with a FOIL REQUEST -- December 9, 2021 public hearing "To discuss New York State's system of ethics oversight and enforcement" -- Request to orally testify & "discuss", in person

TO: SENATE COMMITTEE ON ETHICS AND INTERNAL GOVERNANCE CHAIR ALESSANDRA BIAGGI, ESQ.

I have received NO response from you to my below November 15th and November 8th e-mails – AND there is still NO press release/public announcement about the December 9, 2021 hearing posted on the Senate Committee on Ethics and Internal Governance’s website, your own Senate website, or the Senate’s website, nor registration information for witnesses wishing to testify. Nor is there anything posted on the website of the hearing’s “co-sponsor”, Senator Krueger.

Is it your view that I and other members of the public have nothing to contribute to discussion of “New York State’s system of ethics oversight and enforcement”? What is your answer – and what are your answers to the questions posed by my November 15th email as to past legislative committee oversight hearings of such components of “New York State’s system of ethics oversight and enforcement” as:

- (1) the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct;
- (2) the Unified Court System’s Inspector General;
- (3) the eight attorney grievance committees of New York State’s four appellate divisions;
- (4) the New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics (JCOPE);
- (5) the Legislative Ethics Commission (LEC);
- (6) the New York State Inspector General;
- (7) the New York State Attorney General; and
- (8) the New York State Comptroller.

To assist you in answering even so basic a question as when the Senate and/or Assembly previously held legislative oversight hearings of each of these entities, I am simultaneously filing this e-mail with the Senate and Assembly FOIL/records access officers for pertinent records – and, with respect to the Senate Judiciary Committee’s June 8, 2009 and September 24, 2009 oversight hearings of the Commission on Judicial Conduct and the attorney grievance committees – whose VIDEOS and transcripts are posted on CJA’s website, here – (1) access to the written statements and EVIDENTIARY materials that witnesses and would-be witnesses furnished for those two hearings and for the Senate Judiciary Committee’s scheduled, but aborted, December 16, 2009 hearing and its unscheduled, but announced, further hearings; and (2) the Senate’s records retention policy permitting destruction of the written statements and EVIDENTIARY materials, if they were destroyed.

Please advise without delay so that I may be guided accordingly.

Thank you.

Subject: AGAIN -- December 9, 2021 public hearing "To discuss New York State's system of ethics oversight and enforcement" -- Request to orally testify & "discuss", in person

TO: SENATE COMMITTEE ON ETHICS AND INTERNAL GOVERNANCE CHAIR ALESSANDRA BIAGGI, ESQ.

I have received no response to my below November 8th e-mail, inquiring about the December 9th public hearing which you have entitled "To discuss New York State's system of ethics oversight and enforcement".

As of this date, a full week later, there is still no press release/public announcement about the hearing posted on either the Committee's website, your website, or the Senate's website, nor registration information for witnesses wishing to testify.

Please advise – and confirm that the Committee's December 9th hearing – unlike its August 25th hearing – will afford members of the public with the opportunity to testify about their direct, first-hand experiences in filing complaints with the gamut of entities comprising “New York State’s system of ethics oversight and enforcement”. This includes, of course:

- the entity with ethics jurisdiction over New York’s judges: the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct;
- the entity with ethics jurisdiction over the Unified Court System’s non-judges: the Unified Court System’s Inspector General; and
- the entity with ethics jurisdiction over New York attorneys: the attorney grievance committees of New York’s four Appellate Divisions.

By the way, when was the last time ANY legislative committee held oversight hearings over these three ethics entities, thereafter making findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to the testimony of members of the public – based on investigation of their substantiating documentary EVIDENCE?

If you do not already know the answer, as chair of the Senate Committee on Ethics and Internal Governance, as a member of the Senate Committee on Investigations and Government Operations, of the Senate Judiciary Committee, and of the Senate Codes Committee, you surely can obtain it – and it is your duty to do so.

Likewise, as to when ANY legislative committee last held oversight hearings of the Joint Commission on Public Ethics (JCOPE), the Legislative Ethics Commission (LEC), and the Office of the State Inspector General, at which members of the public were permitted to testify about their experiences in filing complaints with these three entities – followed by legislative investigation of their EVIDENCE and findings of fact and conclusions of law based thereon. Also, as to when ANY legislative committee last held oversight hearings of how the state attorney general and state comptroller discharge their “ethics oversight and enforcement” capacities – also necessarily requiring the taking of testimony and EVIDENCE from members of the public having direct experience, with legislative findings and conclusions thereafter made based on their EVIDENCE.

Please advise as to the foregoing, so that there is “transparency” as to how we have gotten to where we presently are at – and what must be done to right the situation.

Thank you.

The most recent “All Updates” posted on the Committee’s website is for a December 9, 2021 “Public Hearing: To discuss New York State’s system of ethics oversight and enforcement”, which states, in uppercase lettering, “ORAL TESTIMONY BY INVITATION ONLY”.

I have found no press release about the December 9, 2021 public hearing posted on the Senate’s website, your own Senate website, or, for that matter, on the Committee’s website, excepting as “All Updates”. Is there no press release – and are you not inviting testimony from members of the public, with a registration, such as you had for the “postponed” July 12, 2021 hearing, for which I had timely registered and timely submitted a written statement on July 9th and then, again, on July 12th?

What criteria are you using for your December 9th “oral testimony by invitation only” hearing – and were you planning to invite me?

Please advise, as soon as possible – and deem this my formal request to orally testify and “discuss”, in person.

Thank you.
