RE: Bill Dunne's today's article "Journalism's Cruel Dilemma".

The New York Times and 33 other press entities are being sued in a major federal lawsuit, brought "on behalf of the People of the State of New York & the Public Interest", for their knowingly false, corruption-abetting journalism, rigging the electoral win of Zohran Mamdani as NYC mayor, that seeks to establish judicial recognition of causes of action for "journalistic fraud" and "institutional reckless disregard for truth".

Above-attached and here-linked is the October 29, 2025 amended verified complaint, whose prefacing quote reads:

"'The First Amendment goes beyond protection of the press...'...it is the right of the [public], not the right of the [media], which is paramount,'...for 'without the information provided by the press most of us and many of our representatives would be unable to vote intelligently or to register opinions on the administration of government generally,'..."

Cohen v. Cowles Media Co., 501 U.S. 663, 678 (1991), Justice Souter, writing in dissent with Justices Marshall, Blackmun, and O'Connor, citing cases culminating in New York Times Co. v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254, 278-279 (1964), cited in "Journalistic Malpractice: Suing Jayson Blair and the New York Times for Fraud and Negligence", 14 Fordham Intellectual Property, Media & Entertainment Law Journal 1, footnotes 62 and 156 (2003).^{fn}

I am available to answer questions about the lawsuit – and invite you and Mr. Dunne to be the first to report it! Please forward to him.

Thank you.
