Dear Mr. Mazzig, RE: Your today's article "The New York Times Has a Source Problem". There's a legal remedy available against The Times: a lawsuit suing it for "journalistic fraud" and "institutional reckless disregard for truth" – two causes of action, proposed by scholars as viable under the First Amendment more than 20 years ago and buried by them and other scholars. This is now the subject of a major federal lawsuit against The Times and 33 other press defendants, pivotally focused on their rigging Zohran Mamdani's 2025 electoral win as NYC mayor by concealing his corruption as a NYS assemblyman involving the NYS budget, his legislative salary, and NYS' "public protection"/oversight entities. Kindly furnish me with your e-mail so that I can send it to you. Thank you.
